

CAN YOU SPY THE SIGNS OF SPRING?

By Miesje Taylor & Suzanne (Shoshana) Kort Litman

When we walk to school we spy the signs of Spring:

Chickadees play and sing.

Nothing's frozen, now there's dew.

Everything smells fresh and new.

Young shoots burst from earth and vine,

Each tree wears green: that's Spring's sure sign.

Bluebells dance, daffodil bends.

We talk a lot when we walk to school with friends.

We spy pussy willows, soft to touch.

It's early Spring we love so much,

Crocuses purple, bright yellow, white.

Dainty snowdrops dance in sight.

If we rode in cars instead we'd miss everything.

A blur through our windows would be the signs of Spring.

So three cheers for everyone who walks and spies

Spring with bright and open eyes!
